

International Cooperation and Partnerships:

- SGI training is currently witnessing rapid expansion through partnerships and collaboration with the specialised organisations around the world.
- Wide range campaign of collaboration and networking with the leading specialised international organisations and training institutions.
- Our partnership with South Tyneside College STC crowned by an MoU to launch a two years diploma in Maritime Engineering accredited by the Scottish Qualifications Authority (SQA), in addition to short courses in maritime.
- Further partnerships in Language and Skills Development are on the pipeline with Oxford College, WEA, ... etc.

Our Maritime Training

- The main objective of this department is to provide a sound knowledge and skills in marine engineering and safety.
- Our training curriculum designed to meet the training requirements of the International Maritime Organization IMO standards.
- The Department is assigned the responsibilities of marine education, training and enhancement of students
- This is achieved through developing the skills, knowledge and attitudes and enabling trainees to work in the various fields of maritime.

Short Courses:

Competency Certificates & Re validation Safety Courses:

- Personal Survival Technique.
- Fire Prevention and Fire Fighting.
- OPITO , HUET
- Elementary First Aid Personal Safety and Social Responsibilities.
- Advanced Fire Fighting and Control Proficiency in Survival.
- Craft and Rescue Boat.
- Prevention and Combating of Marine Pollution.

- Global Maritime Distress and Safety System (GMDSS).
- Automatic Radar Plotting Aids (ARPA, Radar Simulator, Ship Handling and Manoeuvring).
- Bridge Team Management.

Security Safety Courses:

- Introduction to the ISPS Code.
- Ship / Company Security Officers (SSO / CSO).
- Proficiency in Ship Security Officer, Port / Port Facility Security Officers.

Other Specialised Courses:

- High Speed Craft.
- Proficiency in Fast Rescue Boats.
- Electronic Chart Display and Information System.
- Marine Safety for Beginners.
- Principles of Safety in Factories.
- Stores Management.